PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MADISON . . . The Department of Regulation and Licensing announced that the following disciplinary orders were issued in May 2001.

Jerome Bailey, Columbia, South Carolina - Private Security. The Department of Regulation and Licensing revoked Jerome Bailey's conditional private security permit after Bailey's FBI background check disclosed that he had been convicted of three misdemeanors and a felony. [LS0105212RSG]

Tunis B. Beal, Wisconsin Dells - Practical Nurse. The Board of Nursing suspended the license of Tunis Beal for adding alcohol to patients' juice pitchers without a physician's order. Beal's license was suspended indefinitely until she completes a Caregiver Rehabilitation Review. Following reinstatement, Beal's license will be limited for one year. Beal agreed to the order. [LS0105036NUR]

Tammy Lou Beier, Fond du Lac - Practical Nurse. The Board of Nursing revoked Tammy Beier's license based on finding that she had been convicted of felonies relating to child abuse and child neglect. [LS0102231NUR]

Andrew R. Bos, Jr., Jenison, Michigan - Professional Counselor. The Professional Counselor Section of the Examining Board of Social Workers, Marriage and Family Therapists and Professional Counselors found that Andrew Bos violated professional standards while practicing as a professional counselor in Plover. Among other violations, Bos failed to maintain adequate patient records and withheld patient records from release. The Section accepted the surrender of Bos's license. [LS0105171CPC]

Daniel J. Carroll, Raeford, North Carolina - Private Security. The Department of Regulation and Licensing revoked Daniel Carroll's conditional private security permit after receiving an FBI report showing Carroll had been convicted of a felony. [LS0105151RSG]

Gary W. Chapin, Argyle - Veterinarian. The Veterinary Examining Board ordered Gary Chapin to stop performing non-elective medical procedures on small animals. The limitation remains in effect until Chapin obtains certain education or training. The order was based on findings agreed to by Chapin and the state. [LS0105012VET]

Edwin K. Cole, Medford - Physician. Under a limitation ordered by the Medical Examining Board, Edwin Cole may not perform vasectomies. The Board found that Cole had made an error in performing a vasectomy. [LS0105163MED]

Joshua A. Crouch, Kenosha - Private Security. The Department of Regulation and Licensing revoked Joshua Crouch's conditional private security permit after an FBI background check revealed that Crouch had a conviction record. In his application, Crouch denied he had been convicted of any crimes. [LS0105011RSG]

Henry M. Goldberg, Milwaukee - Physician. The Medical Examining Board reprimanded Henry Goldberg for violating requirements governing the writing of prescriptions. Among other things, Goldberg issued prescriptions in his employees' names for his own use. Goldberg agreed to the Board's order. [LS0105164MED]

Norman F. Heard, Madison - Private Security. The Department of Regulation and Licensing revoked Norman Heard's conditional private security permit after Heard's FBI background check disclosed that he had been convicted of a felony in 1977. [LS0105072RSG]

Mark A. Huffman, Shorewood - Physician. The Medical Examining Board issued an order summarily suspending the license of Mark Huffman for thirty days. The Board found that there was evidence establishing probable cause to believe that Huffman violated rules of conduct and that it was necessary to suspend Huffman's license immediately to protect the public health, safety or welfare.

Justin L. Johnson, Parsons, Kansas - Private Security. The Department of Regulation and Licensing revoked Justin Johnson's conditional private security permit after an FBI background check disclosed that he had been convicted of three felonies. [LS0105291RSG]

Dennis A. Koranda, Tomah - Pharmacist. The Pharmacy Examining Board issued an order suspending Dennis Koranda's license for ten days, limiting his license and requiring completion of 60 hours of education. Koranda's Pharmacy prepared a label for medicine prescribed for an infant. The dosage description on the label was incorrect and substantially in excess of a safe dosage. When questioned at the time by the infant's mother, Koranda assured her that the dosage was correct. The mother gave the medication to the infant as the label directed, causing the infant substantial harm. Koranda agreed to the order. [LS0105152PHM]

Lisa M. Lange, Portage - Registered Nurse. The Board of Nursing issued an order reprimanding Lisa Lange and limiting her license. Lange was found to have been disoriented at work after taking a prescription drug she obtained from a family member. Lange made errors in the administration of medication, including instances where she signed out medications for patients without a physician's order. The Board's order was based on a stipulation. [LS0101173NUR]

Paul V. Lauer, Kenosha - Registered Nurse. The Board of Nursing ordered the suspension of Paul Lauer's license for an indefinite period of time for diverting a controlled substance from the emergency department for his own personal use. The Board stayed the suspension for three-months on the condition that Lauer comply with rehabilitation, monitoring and treatment restrictions. Lauer agreed to accept the discipline. [LS0105038NUR]

Linda Long, Milwaukee - Practical Nurse. The Board of Nursing suspended the license of Linda Long for an indefinite period of time. A drug screen required by Long's employer was positive for cocaine. Long admitted cocaine addiction. Long may apply for a limited stay of suspension when she is able to prove that she is able to practice safely and reliably. Long agreed to the action. [LS0105032NUR]

Thomas J. McCarthy, Brookfield - Dentist. The Dentistry Examining Board reprimanded Thomas McCarthy for allowing a person working under his supervision, who was not a dentist, to extract a tooth. McCarthy agreed to the order. [LS0105021DEN]

Mary J. Miller, Durand - Registered Nurse. The Board of Nursing suspended the license of Mary Miller for an indefinite period of time for reporting for duty under the influence of an intoxicant. The Board stayed its suspension for three-months on the condition that Miller comply with rehabilitation, monitoring and treatment restrictions. Miller agreed to the order. [LS0105034NUR]

Brian Painter, Sherwood - Dentist. The Dentistry Examining Board reprimanded Brian Painter because of the treatment given by him to two children. Painter did not provide options for administration of anesthesia to the parents of the children. Painter's dental treatment caused the children pain. The Board found that Painter departed from professional standards by not providing an alternative method of treatment that included an anesthetic. The Board limited Painter's license, prohibiting him from treating patients fourteen years of age or younger, and requiring that he complete a course in pain control and management. Painter has requested Circuit Court review of the Board's decision. [LS9911191DEN]

Steven H. V. Park, Milwaukee - Physician. The Medical Examining Board ordered that Steven Park enter a risk management assessment program. The Board found that Park issued prescriptions at the request of a person posing as a former patient. The Board concluded that Park's methodology for issuing prescriptions and his internal office controls were inadequate. Park agreed to the order. [LS0105165MED]

Eric M. Parr, Milwaukee - Unlicensed. The Department of Regulation and Licensing issued an order prohibiting Eric Parr from practicing barbering and cosmetology until he obtains a license from the Barbering and Cosmetology Examining Board. The order was based on a stipulation. [LS0104261BAC]

Puritan Medical Products, Inc., West Allis - Drug Manufacturer. The Pharmacy Examining Board reprimanded Puritan Medical Products Inc. for selling medical grade nitrous oxide gas, a prescription drug, to a company that was not authorized to buy or receive wholesale prescription drugs. Puritan consented to the order. [LS0105154PHM]

Dyonta O. Quarles, Upper Marlboro, Maryland - Private Security. The Department of Regulation and Licensing revoked Dyonta Quarles's conditional private security permit after receiving an FBI report showing Quarles had been convicted of a felony. [LS0105081RSG]

Larry A. Raley, Evansville - Private Security. The Department of Regulation and Licensing revoked Larry Raley's conditional private security permit after receiving an FBI report showing Raley had been convicted of a felony. [LS0105301RSG]

Stephen W. Rater, Madison - Dentist. The Dentistry Examining Board issued an order limiting Stephen Rater's license. Rater was convicted of 13 misdemeanor counts of theft by false representation in conjunction with Medicaid billings from 1994 to 1997. The limitations imposed by the Board require Rater to complete an assessment and an educational program. Rater's practice will be monitored for one year. Rater agreed to the order. [LS0105021DEN]

Michael S. Rusak, LaCrosse - Chiropractor. The Chiropractic Examining Board reprimanded Michael Rusak for treating two patients without fully evaluating and documenting the patients' conditions. The Board also ordered Rusak to complete a course in risk management. Rusak agreed to the order. [LS0105101CHI]

Lisa M. Steidl, Seymour - Registered Nurse. The Board of Nursing suspended the license of Lisa Steidl. The Board found that Lisa Steidl telephoned a prescription order to a pharmacy using the name of a physician without authority from the physician. While employed at a hospital, she signed out controlled substances without recording administration of the drug in the patient records. Steidl agreed to the order. [LS0011141NUR]

James M. Sundby, Stoughton - Pharmacist. The Pharmacy Examining Board reprimanded James Sundby for dispensing two prescriptions without consulting with the patient about the prescription. Sundby agreed to the order. [LS0105155PHM]

Adeline Villiard, Radisson - Practical Nurse. The Board of Nursing ordered Adeline Villiard to surrender her license after concluding that she interacted with a nursing home resident in a manner inappropriate under nursing standards. Villiard has retired from nursing and did not deny or admit the charges against her. She consented to the Board's order. [LS0105037NUR]

Eddie J. Wallace, Racine - Private Security. The Department of Regulation and Licensing revoked Eddie Wallace's conditional private security permit after an FBI background check disclosed that he had been convicted of two felony convictions. [LS0105073RSG]

Kathereen M. Williams, Milwaukee - Private Security. The Department of Regulation and Licensing revoked Kathereen William's conditional private security permit after an FBI background check disclosed that she had been convicted of a felony. [LS0105311RSG]

Lance F. Yeoman, Prairie du Chien - Medicine and Surgery. The Medical Examining Board issued an order limiting the license of Lance Yeoman. The limitation was issued on the basis of an order by the Iowa Board of Medical Examiners. The limitations require Yeoman to meet the requirements of the Iowa order as well as other restrictions. Yeoman agreed to the order. [LS0105167MED]

John W. Zastrow, Marshfield - Chiropractor. The Chiropractic Examining Board reprimanded John Zastrow for performing chiropractic adjustments on animals without the direct supervision of a licensed veterinarian. Dr. Zastrow was unaware of this requirement. Zastrow agreed to the order. [LS0105102CHI]
